Armed with degrees in accounting and taxation, Neal offers a unique perspective to a business's life cycle, from planning and formation to dissolution and winding up. Whether nonprofit or for-profit, single owner startup or a multi-million dollar enterprise, Neal helps his clients navigate even the most-intricate commercial transactions.

Armed with degrees in accounting and taxation, Neal offers a unique perspective to a business's life cycle, from planning and formation to dissolution and winding up. Whether nonprofit or for-profit, single owner startup or a multi-million dollar enterprise, Neal helps his clients navigate even the most-intricate commercial transactions.

Before joining Givens Pursley LLP, Neal passed the CPA Exam. Although he's not currently licensed as a certified public accountant, this foundation allows Neal to carefully guide clients through the federal and state tax labyrinth. Neal helps his clients attack a variety of complex tax matters and transactions, including 1031 exchanges, partnership tax, nonprofit tax, and sales/use tax compliance.

As an extension of his business and tax expertise, Neal also consults with his clients and formulates personalized estate plans. Neal recognizes that because estate planning varies based on an individual's own circumstances, estate plans are simply not "one size fits all." Neal carefully analyzes his clients' individual characteristics and goals to develop a plan that's right for them.

Simply put, Neal represents his clients with enthusiasm and vigor. As the Director of the University of Idaho Tax Clinic put it, "He is his clients' champion."
