Becca is an associate that enjoys practicing in a wide range of areas. She graduated magna cum laude from the University of Idaho College of Law, earning her juris doctor with an emphasis in business law and entrepreneurship. While in law school, Becca served as student body president, an editor for the Idaho Law Review, and completed a federal judicial externship with the Honorable B. Lynn Winmill of the District of Idaho. In recognition of her scholarship and contributions to her alma mater, law school faculty selected Becca to receive the Alumni Award for Excellence.

Before law school, Becca earned her undergraduate degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona. She spent a year teaching English in northern Thailand before returning to her hometown to pursue a career in law.

In her free time, Becca enjoys exploring different cultures through travel and cuisine, running in the foothills, and listening to live music.
